SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

- 25X1X 1. FANG Ch'iang (方 翡) (See [REDACTED]), Hochiang Garrison commander, has four infantry regiments and one artillery unit under his direct command. The total strength of the units is over 6,300 men. Each infantry regiment is equipped with 12 light machine guns. The artillery unit is equipped with four Japanese Model-14 artillery pieces.
2. It was previously reported that the 1, 4 and 6 Regiments of the Independent 1 Brigade, under the command of T'IEH Chien-min (田 廷 民), were composed solely of Korean Communist troops [REDACTED]. Only 70 percent of these units are Korean Communist troops. The brigade has been reorganized into a Railway Guard Unit (鐵 路 保 障) with headquarters at Mijungtsun (130-38, 46-28). The 1, 4 and 6 Regiments are now stationed along the railway between Chiamussu (130-21, 46-49) and Linkou (130-16, 45-18). The 2, 3 and 5 Regiments are now stationed along the railway between Chiamussu and Poli (130-30, 45-47).
3. Three infantry regiments from the 1 Brigade under the command of T'IEH Sung (田 松) are stationed at Lienchiangkou (130-30, 45-54) (?130-18, 46-52).
